Woodford Historical Society

The Society aims to stimulate interest in the history of Woodford and its locality. The scope of the Society is as wide as the interest of its members. It provides a friendly atmosphere with interesting subjects and speakers.

The Society produces an Autumn and Spring Newsletter with details of meetings, news and short articles by its members.

The winter and spring series of talks are held on a Thursday each month from September to May at 2.30pm unless otherwise stated.

The meetings are held at: -

All Saints Church Hall, Inmans Row, Woodford Wells, Essex IG8 0NH

Visitors are welcome – £5
